

Canadian Tenors

The Canadian Tenors, Victor Micallef, Clifton Murray, Remigio Pereira and Fraser Walters, are known for their unique blend of classical and contemporary pop that's thrilling audiences of all ages around the world. The Tenors have raised their incredible voices to passionately support many children's charities with diverse vocal styles and undeniable charm.

The Canadian Tenors traverse the globe exciting millions of music lovers while receiving rave reviews and standing ovations from Las Vegas to New York and from Canada to Europe. They have shared the stage with musical giants Andrea Bocelli, Sting and Paul McCartney among many others. The gifted foursome has performed for world leaders including President Barack Obama, President Bill Clinton, Prime Minister Tony Blair, Prime Minister Stephen Harper and President Shimon Peres.

Their recently released holiday album, entitled The Perfect Gift, also went gold in Canada in only three weeks and is being released in the U.S. this holiday season. The group's unique repertoire is sung not only in English and French, but also in Spanish and Italian, reflecting their multicultural heritage.

Their PBS special is currently airing across North America and the Tenors have been named the Canadian Ambassadors for Toronto's 2015 Pan-Am Games, having written and performed the theme song for the event.
